

To: Editor
From: Spike Dolomite Ward, Executive Director
Arts in Education Aid Council, Inc.
(818) 610-2050 or spike@aieac.org
RE: Family Arts Festival to take place in Valley
For Release: Immediately

Date: 2/6/09

OUTDOOR FAMILY FESTIVAL CELEBRATES CHILDREN AND THE ARTS

On Sunday, March 29, 2009, over 250 children from public schools throughout the San Fernando Valley will be featured in a visual art exhibition for the Ninth Annual Valley Wide Student Art Show at the Chatsworth Train Depot in Chatsworth. Hundreds more will be featured in a performing arts showcase throughout the day in school bands, choirs, dance groups, etc. Local, professional artists will be exhibiting their work at their own booths and other vendors and businesses will promoting their services, programs, and products. Food will be available for purchase and free art workshops for the entire family.

The Ninth Annual Valley Wide Student Art Show and Performing Arts Showcase is produced by Arts in Education Aid Council, a nonprofit organization that is restoring the arts to public schools in the Valley, one school at a time, in partnership with the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce. Time Warner in Chatsworth is sponsoring the event, along with Councilman Greig Smith, and Council members Dennis Zine and Wendy Greuel, Jack Weiss, Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky. For more information visit www.aieac.org or call 818-610-2050 #33#